friends the other day introduced a resolution appropriating $2,000 for that purpose but it was refused.

There is still a strong effort made for the removal of the State Capital from Madison—of course to this city: but new interests are being gathered around the former to, keep the seat of government there. The State Orphan Asylum for Soldiers' Children is there and has now under its care 250 orphans for whose support an appropriation of $80,000 was made the other day. The people of Milwaukie propose to build a new Capitol, at a cost, including ground, of $1,000,000, if the seat of government is removed.

The Judges of the Supreme Court, who The Judges of the Supreme Court, who have been striking mildly for higher wages, have succeeded in getting $3,500 per annum. The State tax for governmental purposes for the coming fiscal year is estimated at nearly one million dollars, of which more than one-half must be raised by taxation. This is not accepted quite cheerfully by the people, who think that a State government like ours should be conducted on more economical principles. Non-Wester.
